

Susan Yin

"I am 71 years old. I came from Burma in 1972. I live with my son, Sol Chun, and his two children. Sol Chun is 43 years old. His son, Danny, is 15 years old. His daughter, Judy, is 12 years old. My daughter, Janet, is 50 years old. She has three children. Lisa and Sally are in college. Nelson is in eighth grade." Susan Yin is learning English at Project LEIF, Learning English through Intergenerational Friendship, in Philadelphia.

*Do you have children?
Do you have grandchildren?
What language do you use in the house?*

2

Talking to My Grandchildren

Susan Yin

I love my grandchildren very much. I am learning English so I can talk to my grandchildren. But I also want them to understand a little Chinese. I think every language is useful!

In Weinstein, G. 1990. Stories to Tell Our Children. Boston, Heinle Inc.