

EFFECTIVE USE OF AN AFTERNOON

On April 29, 2015, a mini-conference was held in Shfaram. The event included a main lecture given by Prof. Penny Ur on the effective use of lesson time, and then three parallel workshops on literature teaching to different levels. For the elementary school level, Ms. Elain Colman gave a workshop on using literature in elementary school. As for the junior high school level, Ms. Tracey Piada gave a workshop on making the most of literature in junior high. Lastly, Ms. Amira Asadi gave a workshop on literature and bagrut modules for high school.

The mini-conference included a book exhibition by ECB and UPP and another private book sales person, who expressed his satisfaction of the attendance at the conference.

Eighty people attended the mini-conference, including the Arab sector inspector of the north region Ms. Omaima Kildawi, and the Arab inspector of Haifa region, Ms. Amalia Asadi, who also expressed great pleasure from attending the conference.

Finally, I would like to thank all those who volunteered to help and give support in this event: those who donated refreshments, baked goods and tables for the book exhibit, the manager of the Eshkol Payis, Ms. Ayda Haj-Ali and her staff, for hosting this event, and especially Ms. Tracy Piada.
